DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

Refer to page 12, line 15, character reference "screw tap 1" should be changed to read --drill 1--.

Refer to page 17, line and page 18, line 1, character reference "chip deflection end (26)" should be changed to read --chip deflection end (25)--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 2,8,10 and 18 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Refer to claim 2, line 3, character reference "chip deflection end (26)" should be changed to read --chip deflection end (25)--.

Refer to claim 8, line 3, character reference "chip deflection end (26)" should be changed to read --chip deflection end (25)--.

Refer to claim 8, line 9, character reference "its other end (2)" should be changed to read --its other end (36)--. See Figure 5.

Art Unit: 3722

Refer to claim 8, line 12, the colon " : " should be deleted from the phrase "one of: a pressure application" to read --one of a pressure application--.

Refer to claim 10, line 3, character reference "chip deflection end (26)" should be changed to read --chip deflection end (25)--.

Refer to claim 18, line 5, character reference "its other end (2)" should be changed to read --its other end (36)--. See Figure 5.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the spiral fluted shaft portion (2)" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the spiral flutes (9,10)" in line 7. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

The remainder of the claims is replete with "insufficient antecedent basis" infractions. The claims should be revised carefully in order to comply with 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. Examples of some unclear, inexact or verbose terms used in the claims are listed above for claim 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-20 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Art Unit: 3722

Claims 1 and 9 are the independent claims.

Knutsson '869 is the best art of record.

Knutsson '869 shows in Figures 1-5 a twist drill (1) having a clamping ring (2) mounted in any axial adjustment position surrounding the spiral fluted shaft portion (7) of the drill for holding a countersink drill (4,6). Knutsson '869 shows the clamping ring being secured to the countersink by a threaded connection (between 2 and 3) whereby as the clamping ring is continually threaded, it exerts a pressure on a clamping shoe (3,5) thus securing it to the drill. Knutsson '869 shows the clamping shoe portion (5) positioned within the spiral flute of the drill within tunnels formed between the surface of the spiral flute and the clamping ring.

Knutsson '869 lacks the presence of a locking screw that penetrates radially and braces the clamping ring (2) against the surfaces of the spiral flute (7) with the clamping shoe (3,5) being positioned between the locking screw and the surface of a spiral flute.

Prior art of record fails to anticipate or obviate the modification of replacing the collet-like clamping system of the clamping shoe (3,5), internally threaded clamping ring (2) and externally threaded countersink drill (4,6) with a radially penetrating locking screw to provide securement of the clamping shoe to the surface of the spiral flute.
